In the large paneled living room, with a beamed ceiling and grand fireplace, three French doors open to a stone-covered terrace with a custom-designed fountain.

French doors in the formal paneled dining room open to the deck.

A ceramic tile fireplace leads to the sunny gourmet kitchen with honed-granite countertops, two sinks, and a Miele dishwasher and coffee system.

Guests can luxuriate in a large bedroom with private bath and rear garden access.

PACIFIC HEIGHTS ARTS & CRAFTS

This fully detached, newly built Arts & Crafts home by Taylor Lombardo Architects is located in one of Pacific Heights' most prestigious areas, on the Presidio Wall. Thoughtfully conceived to fit into the character of the neighborhood, this luxury residence features a gourmet kitchen and breakfast nook, formal living and dining rooms, five bedrooms, five bathrooms and two powder rooms, four fireplaces, a library, and a multipurpose room. The master bedroom suite occupies the entire top floor, with its own sitting room and roof terrace.

Amenities include a temperature-controlled wine cellar with built-in wine racks, a sauna, a steam room, an acoustically tuned home theater room, and views of the Presidio from virtually every room. Custom interiors are by Steve Justrich Interior Design.
